

In the Name Of Animals

NOA

Loomade Nimel

- What we believe in?
- Every animal has the right to live without pain and suffering caused by humans.
- Every mistreated, abandoned or exploited animal deserves special attention and care.
- Every person is capable of helping animals by the decision of not eating, wearing or otherwise exploiting them.
- We can transform the society more humane by revealing cruelty against animals.
- We know that every animal wants to protect his/her life and freedom, to be happy and to make choices.

- What we do?
- We concentrate on animals who are suffering:
- in the food industry
- in the entertainment
- in the fur industry
- in the name of science and business development
- in protection of the rights of pets we collaborate with the Estonian Society for the Protection of Animals.

- How we help animals?

- We participate on different events to spread information about cruelty against animals.
- We publish in media information about fur farms, circuses, testing on animals and factory farming.
- We distribute individuals, companies, governments and media information about animal-friendly and cruelty-free lifestyle.
- We organize peaceful demonstrations and we collect signatures in hope of making changes in the society.
- We collaborate with local and international animal welfare and animal rights organizations.
